

I urge Chairman Powell to delay any FCC rule changes that allows fewer corporations to own more stations, both radio and tv. This is totally against the public ownership of the airwaves. We need to allow a democratic debate on this issue of such great consequences that would so negatively affect our democracy.